

MANSI PATEL

(732) 318-1360 | mansicpatel22@gmail.com | LinkedIn | Washington, D.C.

EXPERIENCE

National Consortium for the Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism College Park, MD
State Dept./START Intern (Spring) & Incident Location/GEOINT Intern (Summer) January 2022-August 2022

- Researched and analyzed consequences of continued instability and the absence of fair and equal democracy
- Used open-source material to identify the locations of terrorist attacks for the Global Terrorism Database
- Presented on escalating violence in Mozambique based on conflict trends determined from the GTD data
- Prepared and presented 100+ document tabletop exercise for the State Dept.'s Bureau of Counterterrorism

George Washington University Department of Sociology Washington, D.C.
Administrative Assistant September 2021-May 2022

- Advanced objectives of Graduate Studies program in direct coordination with the Director
- Managed communications with students, faculty, staff, and the university
- Edited scholarly article authored by faculty members to be published in a peer-reviewed journal
- Researched and developed undergraduate and graduate class materials
- Organized a proseminar event series on academic and professional development for graduate students

International Center for Religion and Diplomacy Washington, D.C.
Program Intern January 2020-May 2020

- Researched, developed, and presented a prospective Iran–Saudi Arabia peacebuilding program
- Researched and analyzed domestic and foreign policies to support a united Yemen peacebuilding program
- Wrote and edited profiles of women negotiators with the United States Institute of Peace
- Attended and documented relevant international relations events in staff memos
- Wrote daily news briefs and an analytical blog post on the Kashmir conflict

U.S. House of Representatives Washington, D.C.
Policy Intern September 2019-December 2019

- Assisted staffers in legislative research and preparation for congressional meetings and advocacy events
- Attended policy events and documented meeting notes in staff memos
- Addressed and documented constituent concerns over the phone and through mail to inform representative policy positions

EXTRACURRICULAR

March On the Campus Washington, D.C.
President October 2018-October 2021

- Led Executive Board in management of student organization operations, meetings, and events
- Organized campus advocacy and activism events and participation in Washington, D.C. events
- Partnered with political campaigns, national advocacy groups, and other student organizations
- Designed educational social media campaigns on upcoming elections and ongoing social justice movements

DoSomething Remote
Summer Ambassador June 2020-August 2020

- Launched and implemented a nation-wide social media campaign to encourage youth voter registration
- Analyzed the most successful methods of grassroots organizing learned from research and mentors

EDUCATION

The George Washington University Graduated May 2022
B.A. in International Affairs, magna cum laude | Minor in Arabic Studies and GIS | GPA: 3.78

- Concentration: Security Policy, Middle East
- Relevant Courses: Law and Diplomacy, International Security Politics, International Organizations
- Papers/Projects: International Intervention in Libya: An Analysis of the Modern International System, A Look at Legitimacy: Explaining Instability in North Africa, GIS Portfolio

SKILLS & LANGUAGES

Skills: Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, Canva, MS Office/Google Suite, ArcGIS Pro, OpenStreetMap, Zotero

Languages: Arabic (Intermediate), Gujarati (Conversational), Hindi (Conversational), Spanish (Conversational)